

Elisha Perez nominated as a finalist for Queensland Law Society Graduate Lawyer of the Year

Date: Monday July 13, 2026

We celebrate the recent nomination for Elisha Perez, Graduate Lawyer of the Year. This nomination reflects well-deserved recognition of Elisha's hard work, dedication, and commitment to excellence.

Elisha joined Gilshenan & Luton as part of our inaugural 2026 Graduate Program, one of four graduates who helped shape what has been a landmark year for the firm's investment in the next generation of legal practitioners.

In a relatively short period of time, Elisha has progressed from graduate to admitted solicitor, earned her practising certificate, and made a significant contribution across a range of complex matters. Her enthusiasm for learning, willingness to embrace challenging work, initiative in supporting her colleagues, and commitment to continuous improvement have made a lasting impression on everyone who has worked with her.

Well done Elisha! Wishing you continued success and every opportunity as you take the next steps in your career.

This blog is of a general nature and should not be relied upon as legal advice. If you require further information, advice or assistance for your specific circumstances, please contact us.